ARTIST NEWS

Sophie Calle has been selected as the winner of the Hasselblad Foundation International Award in Photography 2010. The winner receives a prize of SEK

1.000.000 (approximately EUR 100.000). The ceremony will be held on 30 October 2010 in Göteborg. In conjunction with the ceremony an exhibition of the award winner's work will open at the Hasselblad Center at the Göteborg Museum of Art.

Anton Henning has created a room installation at the Museum Frieder Burda, in Baden Baden, as part of the exhibition „Die Bilder tun was mit mir...“, curated by Patricia Kamp and co-curated by Jean Christophe Ammann (until 20 June 2010).

Julian Rosefeldt, as the winner of this year's VATTENFALL CONTEMPORARY 2010 is donated a solo exhibition in cooperation with the Berlinische Galerie. The opening of „Living in Oblivion“ is on Friday, 30 April 2010 at 7 p.m. (01 May to 18 October 2010).

I am delighted to announce that, Charles Sandison has been commissioned to make a permanent work for the Militärhistorischen Museum in Dresden. The work will be on permanent display at the new building of Daniel Libeskind.

Dennis Scholl is currently on show in the exhibition “Genuine Illusions. Illusion and Reality in Art” at the Bucerius Kunst Forum, Hamburg (until 24 May 2010). Other prominent exhibiting artists include Thomas Demand, Andy Warhol and Jasper Johns, Peter Fischli/David Weiss and Christian Jankowski.

Upon invitation of the curator Patricia Kamp, Nedko Solakov is a further participating artist in the exhibition „Die Bilder tun was mit mir...“ at the Museum Frieder Burda in Baden Baden. His wall drawings which were created on site, intervene throughout the entire museum space and are also spread over the accompanying catalogue („Die Bilder tun was mit mir...“, Stiftung Frieder Burda, Hatje Cantz Verlag, Ostfildern, ISBN 978-3-7757-2672-6).

Ralf Ziervogel participates in the group show LINIE LINE LINEA of the "Institut für Auslandsbeziehungen" (ifa) and Kunstmuseum Bonn (until 16 May 2010).
